

Two Victories Over Hurley Give Mavericks Strong Lead In Copper Circuit

MAVERICKS MAKE IT TWO STRAIGHT BY WINNING FROM HURLEY, SUNDAY

Concentrators Put Up Two Fast Games Against the El Pasoans, Losing the Sunday Game, 10 to 5, and the Saturday Game 5 to 4—Clean Tactics of Hurley Players Make Hit With El Paso Fans.

BECAUSE the El Paso Mavericks swatted the ball pitter and harder than the Hurley team in Sunday's game, they won, 10 to 5, and made it two straight from the Concentrators. It was not nearly as interesting an exhibition as Saturday's game, but there was a large crowd in attendance and everyone enjoyed the play. Again the game was devoid of scrambling and Hurley won a place in the hearts of El Paso fans.

Bill Anderson, who used to play in the Ohio State league, made his initial appearance on third sack for El Paso. He fielded his position well and made a good showing with the stick.

Hurley Starts Scoring.
For two innings both sides went out in one, two, three or four, and in the third Hurley started the scoring. Patterson fanned O. Johnson walked and Goodman fanned, but Johnson took second, when B. Smith dropped the third strike and could not throw to second quickly enough to catch him. Mason singled to right and Johnson scored. Clark knocked a hot one through Hill and Mason, took third, and scored on the throw when Kiefer tried to catch Clark going to second. McGeever fanned.

Three in Fifth for El Paso.
There was no more scoring until the last half of the fifth when El Paso got three runs. Gurtz went out on a fly to Clark which the latter put after a hard run. Barker was safe at first when Mason took his grounder and threw wild to first. He went to second on the throw. Goodman took Anderson's grounder and tried to throw Barker out at third but both were safe. Anderson stole second and he and Barker scored. B. Smith's single through short. Hill singled over short and Smith went to second. Gowen beat a punt to first and Kiefer sacrificed on a bunt, scoring Hill. The inning was ended when T. Smith went out on a grounder, Goodman to Robinson.

Score Tied in the Sixth.
Hurley tied the score in the sixth. Clark walked and McGeever fanned, but Clark stole second. He scored when Gurtz let Cleveland's grounder go through his legs. Tommy Smith took Secor's grounder, touched second and threw to Schultz, at first, who doubled Moore.

The next inning Hurley took the lead again with two more tallies. Robinson singled past short. Patterson brought him home with a three banger. Secor's grounder, touched second and threw to Schultz, at first, who doubled Moore.

FOUR TEAMS TO BE IN COPPER CIRCUIT

Meeting Will Be Held Tuesday at Silver City to Organize El Paso, Silver City, Hurley and Santa Rita.

Should the plans of the local management and the directors and officials of the Silver City, Santa Rita and Hurley teams go through a four team league, comprising the four clubs will be formed. Silver City, Santa Rita and Hurley will be represented at a meeting to be held at Silver City Tuesday evening for the purpose of examining the schedule submitted by the management of the local Mavericks, which will begin on June 1 and continue until Aug. 24.

The schedule provides for 27 games, nine to be played by each club. The schedule also provides for a special cup series which is to be held between Santa Rita and Hurley, offered by the El Paso Copper company, and which will be played in three games each of the series, efforts will be made to bring them to El Paso, or stage a post-season series here after the schedule is over. When the schedule goes into effect on June 1, every team will have an even break, and the advantage which either of the clubs has secured over the other will count for nothing in the standings of the league.

An agreement will also be made by the clubs that no player will be allowed to be drafted or secured by any other club if he resigns from the team he started the season with. If the schedule is satisfactory it will be permanently adopted. The schedule will allow the Mavericks to leave home once each month, and play here three times a month.

Officers will also be elected and rules made at the meeting Tuesday night.

Local Man's Work Improves.
A great improvement was shown in the handy style of Payo since his last appearance here in a bout with Frankie Conley. Payo was highly touted, and with plenty of clippings, but Sunday afternoon he showed that he is no fighter at all and very little at that. Considerable money was lost on Moffatt, as his clever boxing with his sparring partners in the training camp, went a long way towards making him a favorite with the local fight followers.

MAFFATT STAGGERS THROUGH ROPES BEFORE THE ATTACK OF KID PAYO

Refusing to Deliver a Sleep Punch, El Paso Bantamweight Wins From Claimant of Title in the First Round at Juarez—Kid Harris Is Knocked Out by Kid Lee, of El Paso.

With blood streaming from his nose and mouth, the result of a terrific tattoo of hooks, crosses and jabs, Spider Moffatt, claimant of the bantamweight championship of the southwest, staggered around the ring, and fell through the ropes, Sunday afternoon in the first round of a scheduled six round bout in the first round of a scheduled six round bout in the first round of a scheduled six round bout.

It was in the first round when the much heralded bantam from Oklahoma City took the count, and although the victory was too easy to add another feather in the cap of Kid Payo, local champion, the coolness of the El Paso postoffice product would have brought credit to a veteran, and his clean and well placed wallpops gave evidence that he had gone through a rigid training system, to perfect himself for this battle.

Payo Starts With a Rush.
Payo was after Moffatt at the start of the bout, and although a veteran, Moffatt, ignoring the advice of his seconds, allowed the little Mexican to get him in a corner, where he was beaten down before he had a chance to cover up, from the avalanche of blows.

The boys met in the middle of the ring and Moffatt rushed Payo to his corner. Payo let him with a series of jabs, and then brought over a short haymaker, balancing this with a stinging uppercut which landed flush on Moffatt's jaw.

Payo Withholds Sleep Punch.
The visitor showed a decided lack of either a guile or show guard, and when Payo began a tattoo of perfect hooks, and uppercuts to the midriff section, and head Moffatt was helpless.

After Payo landed a heavy left to the stomach Moffatt ducked a wild swing and staggered helpless to the ropes, building his right hand which he always was broken in guarding an exceptionally heavy punch. Payo could have winched Moffatt on the jaw and ended the fight with a knockout, but his feeling of pity for his helpless opponent allowed Moffatt to fall against the ropes, without the aid of a sleep punch.

View of Niagara Inspires Yankees

Chance's Young Athletes Rally on Western Trip, Taking Three Games From Detroit—"Peerless Leader" Will Play in Game Against the White Sox.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, May 12.
The first lap of Frank Chance's self conducted tour in the west ended in Detroit with three victories out of four games.

On the way to Detroit from New York Niagara Falls was heartily relished by all hands and also inspired those many young athletes who may never have the same opportunity. Infielders, outfielders, pitchers and catchers who now make up the entourage, gazed long and ardently, and to one another agreed that it was at least kind on Mr. Chance's part to hand them such a treat.

Chance himself alighted from the train, and his long gray eye, roved from the collection of mistle to the big waterfalls, which never cease to be a wonder to a son of a gun.

"What do you think of the Falls?" timidly asked a child reporter traveling with the team.

"There'll be a lot of new faces when we see it again, observed the manager, and he cast a full look on Edward Kiefer, the strange pitcher who permitted Murphy to steal home in New York.

No brass band turned out to meet the Yankees, which they would have done, for the town is too gloomy over its own club to make demonstration over an alien.
